A walk through the Jewish history of Prague

ABOUT THE TOUR

Josefov - the Jewish quarter in Prague named after the Emperor Josef II - is an area surrounded by the Old Town. In 1880s part of the Jewish quarter was demolished, however it is still a very well preserved part of the Jewish culture and heritage. During our tour, we will see the Old-New Synagogue, the oldest synagogue in the Central Europe, from 13th century, which is still used for religious ceremonies.

There are six more synagogues in Prague where you can see exhibitions connected to the Jews. The Old Jewish cemetery is also very interesting with up to 12 graves on top of each other. Jewish Prague is an unforgettable experience!
