

NETHERLANDS

WALKING THROUGH
JEWISH AMSTERDAM

DESTINATION SERIES

AUDIOWALK

Walking through Jewish Amsterdam

► Starting Point: in front of the Jewish Historical Museum ►►

Optimal walking hours: daily from 11.00 AM to 4.00 PM

1. Tamir Herzberg's Intro
2. Child of strangers
3. Wealth and poverty, the Portuguese and Ashkenazi Jews
4. Life in the Jewish quarter (1)
5. Baruch Spinoza
6. My grandfather Abel Herzberg and Spinoza
7. Menasse ben Israel
8. Rembrandt
9. Life in the Jewish quarter (2)
10. The diamond industry and Henri Polak
11. Gassan Diamonds
12. Adaptation to Dutch society
13. The Uilenburger Synagogue and the Talmud-Thora school
14. Renovation of the Jewish quarter and alderman de Miranda
15. My grandfather and Zionism

16. Rising anti-Semitism
17. My grandfather about Judaism
18. Beth Hamidrassj Ets Chaim and the New Israelite Weekly
19. Asylum for the German Jews
20. The Orphanage for girls and the Israelite Seminary
21. Café Waterlooplein 77
22. Actions against the Jews
23. My grandfather: "What possessed Hitler?"
24. My family
25. The Hollandsche Schouwburg (the Dutch Theatre)
26. My family returns from the war
27. Poetry by my mother Judith Herzberg
28. My grandfather: "Revenge must be sweet"
29. The Dockworker
30. Back to the Jewish Historical Museum